Boat launch opening at Jennings Randolph Lake

Jennings Randolph Lake, W.Va. — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers announces the opening of Jennings Randolph Lake for the 2007 recreation season. The Corps boat launch on the West Virginia shore will open Sunday, April 1 at 8 a.m. The boat launch is alongside Howell Run just off West Virginia State Route 46, three miles north of Elk Garden, W.Va.

The Corps charges a $3 fee for launching a boat from its boat launch. An annual pass that will allow an unlimited number of launches at all Corps parks is on sale for $30 at the Corps park office. The park office is located on the West Virginia side; follow the signs from WV 46E. Holders of the Golden Age Passports, for senior citizens 62 and over, America the Beautiful Senior Passes, America the Beautiful Access Passes and Golden Access Passports, for the physically challenged, are allowed to purchase a Corps annual boat launch pass for half price or to pay $1.50 per launch at the Corps' boat launch only.

The boat launch on the Maryland shore is managed by the Maryland Department of Natural Resources and will open later this month, weather permitting. The Maryland launch is on Mt. Zion Road off Maryland State Route 135 near the salt shed on Backbone Mountain.

The Maryland service charge will be $5 for launching a boat. The 2007 Maryland State Forest and Park Service All Season Pass can be purchased for $75 for Maryland residents or for $100 for out-of-state residents. The pass can be purchased at all Maryland State Parks. The pass offers: free day-use entry for everyone in the vehicle (up to nine people) to Maryland's state parks and Cedarville State Forest; free boat launching at most facilities, and a 10 percent discount on state-operated concessions and boat rentals. For parks with honor box systems, the pass covers entry service charges.

The Corps annual pass and the Maryland All Season pass are valid at either boat launch on Jennings Randolph Lake.
